20.6.14 I have seen this Edition. It is admirably got up and is in every way worthy of support. I believe the cheapest Edn Costs 53 Rs for 20 Volumes. 25 sets may be purchased at a Cost of 1253 Rs. As the demand for such High Class Philosophic books is very limited, I consider that State patronage is quite proper.

The Humble Petition of T. K. Balasubrahmanya Aiyar, B. A., Proprietor of the Sri Vani Vilas Press, Srirangam.

MR 9.7.14

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HIGHNESS.

I am a graduate of the Madras University and passed in 1893 with Sanskrit as my optional language.

Having then conceived a strong and genuine love for Sanskrit and having some independent means of my own, I resolved to dedicate my life and energies to the study of Sanskrit and to do everything in my power to promote and spread Sanskrit learning.

Finding that many of the Sanskrit works published in several places were not accurate and that many more rare and valuable works remained hidden in the corners of many a Pandit's house—a prey to moths and white ants, I decided to start a Press of my own and accordingly in the year 1904 I started the SRI VANI VILAS PRESS AT SRIRANGAM with the prime object of bringing out correct and critical editions of rare, useful and hitherto unpublished works in Sanskrit and Tamil literature and philosophy. To carry out this object successfully I equipped the Press with all up-to-date machinery at a cost of Rs. 30,000, searched for rare valuable Manuscripts all over the Madras Presidency, secured the co-operation of a number of eminent Pandits and scholars for the purpose of collating and editing and in short left nothing undone that was necessary for the realization of the object in view.

During the nine years the Press has been in existence, it has brought out for the first time, as will be evident from the Statement 'A' attached hereto, several hitherto unpublished noteworthy works. Of these, the largest and the grandest is the collected edition of the works of SRI SANKARACHARYA in 20 Vols. published in obedience to the esteemed commands of His Holiness the late Jagad Guru of Sringeri. No pains have been spared to make this edition as accurate and scholarly as possible. The greatest attention has been bestowed upon even the minutest details and the special feature of the edition consists in the exhaustive Table of Contents attached to each of the volumes. His Holiness the late Jagad Guru of Sringeri, who was one of the greatest Sanskrit scholars of India, personally supervised the editing of these volumes and under his guidance the best possible edition has been produced. All scholars who have seen the volumes pronounce it to be the best edition available. Prapanchasara, the great Mantrasastra work, Hastamalakiya Bhashya and several of the minor Prakaranas and Stotras are published for the first time in this edition. Throughout, great care has been bestowed upon the correct punctuation which is a rare feature in Sanskrit books. Besides the editors mentioned in the tabular statement, numerous Pandits have been consulted now and then and the final deciding authority was always His Holiness the late Jagad Guru of Sringeri. A sum of Rs. 40,000 has been spent on this work alone and this is the first instance in the history of Sanskrit literature where a collected and accurate edition of any author's works is published in uniform volumes.

Now that this Magnum Opus is completed, the Press has launched on the ambitious project of publishing as far as possible all the works of this great World-Teacher with rare and valuable commentaries. With this object in view the Taittiriyopanishad Bhashya with the hitherto unpublished commentary 'Vanamala' of Sri Achyuta Krishnananda Tirtha has been already published and the inimitable Brahmasutra Bhashya with the most precious commentaries viz., Bhamati, Kalpataru and Parimala is now being issued in parts. The Vishnusahasranama Bhashya with the unpublished commentary of Taraka Brahmananda is in the Press and the other works also will be taken up one after another.

Next to these grand works is the Adhvara Mimamsa Kutuhalavritti of Sri Vasudeva Dikshita This is a gigantic work on the Purva Mimamsa Philosophy and since its publication has won the approbation of all students of that system. It has been introduced as a text book not only by the Madras University for the M A. Degree Examination but also by the Mysore and Travancore authorities in their Sanskrit Colleges.

All the other publications also, it will be observed, are very rare and exceedingly valuable, edited with the co-operation of eminent scholars and Pandits, printed in the best style possible, and presented at a cheap price in an elegant and attractive binding. To meet the growing needs of these publications, the Press was considerably enlarged at a further capital cost of Rs. 30,000 The List B attached hereto shows the rare and valuable books which are hitherto unpublished and which are about to be published from this Press and Statement C shows the books which, though already published elsewhere, have been considerably improved and corrected after a collation of different Manuscripts. The outlay on all these publications, besides the Memorial Edition of Sri Sankara's works, comes up to Rs. 50,000, thus making a total of one and a half lakhs of Rupees invested up to now in the Press and its Publications. In the field of Tamil literature also, several works have been published and these are shown in Statement D.

That this Press has been doing immensely useful work is attested by competent scholars some of whose opinions are appended hereto. In appreciation of the valuable work turned out from this Press and of the accuracy of the editions, His Holiness the late Jagad Guru of Sringeri who was the greatest Sanskrit scholar of modern times was pleased to sanction the grant of a lump sum of Rs 8,000 for the Press besides subscribing for a number of copies of all the works hitherto published as well as of those to be published hereafter. In recognition of my services in the field of Sanskrit and Tamil literature, the Government of India have been pleased to grant me a certificate of merit and a medal on the occasion of the Coronation Durbar of their Imperial Majesties. The Government of Madras have also been pleased to sanction the purchase of 46 sets of the Edition de Luxe of the works of Sri Sankaracharya and to order that all the publications of the Madras Government Oriental Library be sent to this Press free of cost. Mention has also been made of the work of this Press at the Conference of Orientalists held at Simla.

Thus, in the interests of Sanskrit and Tamil literature, it is necessary that the work of this Press should progress uninterruptedly and though I have so far most cheerfully drawn on my limited resources and have even gone beyond by borrowing, for the work accomplished till now, I am afraid I shall not be able to do so much longer without the liberal patronage of the several Governments and the Native States. As for the Public, that section of it which can appreciate and patronize works of the kind issued by my Press is numerically very small and hence not much help can be expected from that quarter.

Under the circumstances, I have no doubt that I have but to approach Your Highness with a detailed statement of the work turned out by this Press to secure Your Highness generous sympathy and liberal patronage. Fully convinced as I am, that with Your Highness's liberal policy of encouraging in all possible ways the promotion and development of Oriental learning, Your Highness would not allow the work of this Press to suffer for want of sufficient encouragement, I venture, to approach Your Highness with an earnest prayer for substantial patronage and help.

For which act of kindness I shall, as in duty bound, ever beg to remain,

Your Highness's
most obedient Servant
T. Ganapati Sastri
1st July. 1914.

The Madras Mail writes:- In the field of Sanscrit Litrature, particularly that part of which it relating to metaphysics and phylosophy there has been no greater name than that of Sree Shankaracharya, the exponent of the Advaita Vedanta system. In the short career of thirty two years, popularly ascribed to him, he had produced works which for depth of learning and metaphysical acumen, have scarcely ever been surpassed; while for the quantity of output they comprise a wast mass of extensive literature, produced in times when there were no facilities for publication. Sree Shankara gave his works to the world in the course of his propagandist work in the traditional method of oral teaching, which has been current for ~~ear~~ centuries in this land and was the only means in ancient days of giving publicity to one's literary works. But amongst learned bodies of old, once these works had become current they were handed down with scrupulous care and regard to the accuracy of the text from teacher to pupils and were preserved for future generations. With the introduction of printing into this country, and of printing Oriental languages in the West almost the first works to engage the attention of both Western Orientalists and Hindu scholars where the immortal works of Sree Shankara, which had lain buried in the archives of many an ancient Hindu manuscript library. Of European scholars, Professors, Max Muller and Deussen have individually done more than any body of men has done for securing wide popularity for Sri Shankara and his works.

Amongst Hindus, the authorities of the N.S. Press of Bombay, and of the Royal Asiatic Society's branch in Calcutta have been unsparing in their labours to bring out scholarly editions of some of Sri Shankara's works. But for the Sri Vani Vilas Press of Srirangam, has been reserved the honour of collecting, editing and issuing with the imprimatur of the late head of the Sringeri Mutt, a memorial edition of the works of Sri Shankara, who won for himself undying fame as a metaphysician and philosopher. Mr: T.K. Bala Subramania Iyer, the Proprietor of the Sri Vani Vilas Press, has devoted himself exclusively to the resuscitation of classical Samar Sanskrit works, and has made available scholarly editions of these at reasonable prices in Nagari charecters, with a view to popularise them throughout India. He has invested nearly rupees two lacs in the undertaking, and has been carrying it through without regard to cost or return. The crowning effort of his devotion and self-sacrifice to the cause of Sanskrit is the present memorial edition of the works of Sri Shankara, which are issued in twenty volumes, excellently printed and beautifully got-up, in which are embodied all his works, including his commentaries on the famous prasthanatraya and his miscellaneous works. The edition has had the unique advantage of having passed through the press under the direction and critical eye of the late Sringeri Guru, himself one of the greatest exponents of the Advita Vedanta in recent years.

We learn that the Madras Govt:- have subscribed for about 50 sets of this memorial edition, in the recognition of the devoted works of Mr: Bala Subramanya Iyer in the field of Sanskrit literature. His publications have attracted the attention of lovers of Sanskrit throughout the country, and even of Orientalists in Europe and the United States. Some of them have been prescribed as text-books by the Madras University, and many have been eagerly purchased by educational bodies and litraty men. The enlightened example of Madras Govt:- who have been doing a great deal in recent years for the advancement of Sanskrit education deserves to be followed by other administrations and Governments in the country, particalarly by the Indian aristocracy and chiefs, who have been the traditional patrons of literary men and promoters of literary movements from ancient times.

Select Opinions on the work of the Sri Vani Vilas Press.

Dr F Otto Schrader, Ph. D.:—Mr T K Balasubrahmanyam, Proprietor of the Sri Vani Vilas Press at Srirangam, is one of the most prominent publishers of Sanskrit Works in Southern India His Memorial Edition of Sri Sankara Charya's Works now nearly complete (20 Vols) is really admirable His 'Sastra Series the latest volume of which is Venkatanatha s extensive and valuable commentary on the Bhagavadgita, contains only noteworthy and hitherto unpublished works and is edited very neatly and accurately Having so often used these books and never without particular satisfaction, I dare say that the Sri Vani Vilas Press is worthy of all encouragement

Hon. Dewan Bahadur Justice Sir S Subramanya Aiyar, B.L., LL D K C I E —My testimony to the value of the work to which you have so patriotically devoted yourself is hardly wanted considering the eulogistic notices which it has received from competent hands I am sure your devotion to the cause of Sanskrit Literature and to the dissemination of sound instruction through your Tamil Journal, SRI VANI VILASINI, will add credit to the University of which you are a Graduate I hope that your efforts will receive support

Hon'ble Mr. P. S. Sivaswamy Aiyar, C.S.I., C.I.E.:—Your edition of the Kutuhala Vritti is a scholarly work and the get up is worthy of the reputation of your press It goes without saying that your publications are excellently well got up, quite unlike the coarse unattractive style of Sanskrit Publications generally You are doing a very useful service to the country by bringing out handsome editions of Sanskrit Classics and rare works

Hon'ble Mr V. Krishnaswamy Aiyar, C.S.I.:—An edition of the collected works of the Saint, philosopher and poet will supply a want keenly felt by the lovers of Sanskrit and the students of the Advaita philosophy all over the world Mr T K Balasubrahmaniya Aiyar s reputation as a publisher is a guarantee for the success of this noble undertaking He is fully entitled to the patronage of the discerning public

Rao Bahadur M Rangacharya, M A .—I am glad that you are continuing the labour of love in bringing out worthy and valuable Sanskrit Publications The accuracy and artistic get up of the publications of the Srirangam Sri Vani Vilas Press are widely known and recognised and the help you are rendering through them to the development of Sanskrit Scholarship and the unearthing of buried literary treasures of the past is indeed very considerable The fact that unaided you have done so much so well, is convincing proof to me that your hands deserve to be strengthened by adequately bestowed aid I think you ought to seek such aid from all those who are interested in the cause of India's ancient learning and are in a position to give the needed aid

Mr S Kuppuswami Sastrigal, M.A :—I am glad to be able to bear testimony to the excellent work which the Sri Vani Vilas Press, Srirangam, has been doing for the past ten years The Press has conferred on the world of Sanskrit scholars an inestimable boon by bringing out correct and critical editions of many rare and hitherto unpublished Sanskrit works with the co operation of many eminent Sanskrit scholars It has already earned a well deserved reputation for attractive get up and typographical accuracy I have no hesitation in saying that the Sanskrit Publications of this Press can never suffer by comparison with similar publications issued from any other Indian Press, and that they richly deserve a very liberal and substantial encouragement at the hands of our benign Government and of all the patrons of Sanskrit learning

Hon'ble Mr. T. V. Seshagiri Aiyar:—You are doing excellent service to the cause of Sanskrit Literature You are yourself a good scholar and you have resolved to devote your life to the work you have taken in hand. I know personally some of the men who assist you and the work of discriminative editing cannot be in safer hands For neatness and typographical accuracy, there is none in the whole of India which can excel yours and I say this with complete knowledge of the various publications from all parts of India. I think your efforts should be encouraged and in these days when so much is talked of about encouraging Oriental learning and research your services in that direction should receive recognition. I hope the Government will give you a liberal contribution so that you may be enabled to establish your publishing agency on a sound financial basis.

Justice S. C. Mitra, Calcutta :—The books published by the Sri Vani Vilas Press are almost all new to Bengal and they throw a flood of light on the history of literature of the Middle Ages in Southern India.

Kaviratna Jnanendra Chandra Chattopadhyaya, Lecturer in Sanskrit, Midnapore :—I sincerely thank you for the beautiful edition of a hithertobefore unknown commentary (Brahmasutra Vritti), which I must say is an invaluable acquisition to the store of Sanskrit learning.

Mr. R. C. Dutt, C.I.E. :—The Yadavabhyudaya has been excellently edited and the illustrations are good.

Kerala Varma, Esq., C.S.I., F.M.U., M.R.A.S., F.R.H.S., Trivandrum :—Like all the works issued from the Sri Vani Vilas Press, Kutuhala Vritti deserves all applause.

Mr. T. Ganapati Sastri, Curator, Government Oriental Library, Trivandrum :—Your undertaking is indeed a very gigantic and laudable one and I am glad to find that your work possesses all the requisites of an excellent edition.

The Madras Mail :—The Sri Vani Vilas Press of Srirangam has been helping the cause of the advancement of Sanskrit Literature, and its admirable publications of valuable classical works have been the means by which Sanskrit knowledge has been more widely disseminated. Several ancient works, chiefly on Mimamsa and Vedanta, of great literary merit and value, which were hitherto supposed to have been lost, have been unearthed by the energy of Mr. T. K. Balasubrahmanya Aiyar and the Pandits associated with him and made available to the Public. The works under notice illustrate the wide field of activity that the Proprietor of the Press has been prospecting with the aid of several Sanskrit scholars of repute.....It behoves all well-wishers of Sanskrit to accord every help in their power to the Editor of the SRI VANI VILAS SERIES in his endeavours to resuscitate ancient Sanskrit literature.

The Hindu :—That this extremely useful work (Kutuhala Vritti), is now brought to light for the first time is due to the untiring efforts of the Sri Vani Vilas Press at the resuscitation of all that is rare and precious in the field of Sanskrit literature.

The Sri Vani Vilas Press, Srirangam, have published this edition (Kavyalankarasutra Vritti) and their name is a guarantee for everything excellent in publications of this kind. The publishers are no common literary critics.

Mr. T. K. Balasubrahmanya Aiyar is certainly doing invaluable service to Sanskrit literature by bringing out such rare and excellent works.

In this connection we must put in a word of praise about Mr. T. K. Balasubrahmanyam for his untiring efforts to bring to light old Sanskrit works which though highly valuable are nothing in the sacred corner of a Pandit's habitation or in the innermost recesses of an Oriental palace. We hope lovers of Sanskrit will fully appreciate the value of the work.

Dr. R. Schmidt in the Indian Antiquary :—The new edition (Parvati Parinaya) forms a very interesting contribution to literary history.

Louis H. Gray, Esq., Newark, U.S.A. :—I can very conscientiously say that it (Vasavadatta) is one of the most admirable editions I have ever seen from an Indian Press.

1	Bhagavadgita Venba ...	Alagimanavalajeer	Tamil Visishtadwaita Philosophy	Pandits S. Swaminatha Aiyar, and P. R. Krishnamachariar.	The Hindu:—The Sri Vani Vilas Press is really to be congratulated for having unearthed this precious work from among the crumbling Palm-leaf manuscripts. The Madras Mail:—Great credit is due to the Proprietor of the Sri Vani Vilas Press for having brought to light this precious work which has been lying hidden till now among a vast heap of crumbling Palm-leaf manuscripts. The Mysore Review:—The very existence of the Manuscripts was unsuspected by the world of Tamil Scholars and so all the greater is the value of the precious find. The Theosophist:—The work is indeed a classical one. Professor K. Sundararama Aiyar, Esq., Kumbakonam:—You are daily adding to your services in the cause of Tamil literature. The publication of this Venba is a fresh effort in the same sacred cause. Mr. P. Narayana Aiyar, Madura:—It is simply beautiful.
2	Sundara Kandam of Kamba Ramayanam.	Kamban ...	Tamil Literature ...	Do.	The peculiarity of this edition is that more than thirty-five Manuscripts were secured and collated and the best readings adopted. There has been an improvement in almost every stanza and several stanzas are added from the Mss. which are not found in the extant editions. Further, a critical English Introduction and a close and faithful Tamil prose rendering of the whole Kanda are added at the beginning of the book.

3	Tiruvanaikkapuranam.			Pandit M. V. Ramanujachariar.	This book also was collated and edited with the help of several Mss. and a very faithful Tamil prose rendering of the whole poem is given at the beginning.
4	Sri Vani Vilasini.				This is a high class illustrated Tamil Monthly Journal, highly spoken of by all Tamilians.

The Mysore Review:—The contents are all of vital questions of the day, written in pure and unpedantic Tamil, and showing a healthy variety The print and get-up of the journal leave nothing to be desired and many a popular English monthly in India, might try to imitate this juvenile Tamil monthly, in this respect at least.

We wish the enterprise every encouragement and success.

The People's Guardian, Tinnevelly:—Contains original and varied contributions from the pen of specialists

Ravi Varma, Esq., the Artist —The get-up as well as the contents of the journal is very excellent.

C. H. Yates, Esq., Superintendent, Govt Printing Works, Mysore·—From a Printer's point of view, it is a most neat production, very evenly printed and finished in good style.

Mr. P. Narayana Aiyar, B.A., B.L., High Court Vakil, Madura —Matter and manner about it are of a superior order and reflect the greatest credit upon your enterprise and Esthetic taste

					S. V. Kallapiran Pillai, Avl., Chingleput :—I went through the articles contained in it. They are varied, interesting and instructive and are well written in chaste Tamil. The get-up leaves nothing to be desired. It is one of the very few well written Tamil journals and I wish it every success. V. A. Vandayar Avl., Poondi .—The matter and the get-up of the Magazine leave nothing to be desired. The Madras Mail : —The articles cover a wide range of topics and are written in simple and elegant Tamil. The Hindu :—It is a well illustrated monthly which aims to impart a sound and useful knowledge to the men and women of our Tamil country. The topics are varied, and several excellent half-tone plates are reproduced in colours. The journal compares favourably with high class English magazines and we are sure it has a promising career before it. V. T. Krishnamachariar Avl., Dy. Collector :—A journal like this providing wholesome reading for the females of our community has been a long left want and I am glad to see that your journal has been so widely appreciated.
